PAIN-KILLER. DEAR SIRS : During a residence of some ten ears in Siam and China, as a mesionary, I outd your Pate-Killera most valuable remady for that fearful scourge the Chotera, in administering the middle I found it most effectual to give a tea spoonful of Pain Killer in a gill of het water sweetened with sugar; then, after about fifteen minutes, begin to give about tablespoonful of the same mixture e ery tew minutes until relief was obtained. Apply hot applications to the extremities. Bath the stom uch with the Pain-Killer, clear, and rub the limbs briskly. Of those who had the Chol era, and took the medicine taithfully, in t e way stat d above, eight out of ten recovered. KEV. R. TELFORD, Missionary in Chi. a DEAR Stas: During a long residence in China I have used your valuable Pain Killer, both in my own tamily and among the Chinese, and
